Coming—MARY PICKFORD in "The Love Light"

VESTABURG
Harvey Hart returned to Detroit Thursday.
Robert Smith of Alma has been here visiting John Horton and other friends.
Jud Hare was in Alma Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jollie Hare and Mr. and Mrs. Jud Hare went to Crystal Wednesday and attended the funeral of their uncle.
Lawrence Tupper was in St. Louis Thursday visiting his niece, Mrs. Ford Sanders, and family.
The Stanton high school basketball team will come to Vestaburg on Friday evening, January 28, and play basketball with the high school team of this place, at the W. M. A. hall. If Vestaburg beats Stanton, Vestaburg ties them for second place in the eastern part of Montcalm county.
A very enjoyable time was had at the M. W. A. hall on Wednesday when the members of Vesta Camp, No. 2653, Royal Neighbors of America, and their families met to spend the day socially and attend installation of the officers for the ensuing year. A bountiful dinner was served at noon and a good time was enjoyed socially after which the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Wm. Caris, orator, and then turned over to installing Officer Myrtle Gott, and Ceremonial Marshall Mildred Stauffer, who had charge of the installation. Officers were duly installed. The officers for the ensuing year are Mrs. Wm. Caris, orator; Mabel Murtaugh, vice-orator; Carrie Miller, past orator; Vie Cornell, recorder; Marie Dyer, receiver; Ada Miller, chaplain; Alta Worden, marshal; Cora Corder, assistant marshal; Zelma Howay, inner sentinel; Hannah Hare, outer sentinel; managers, Wm. Caris, Mrs. Jud Hare, and Mrs. Wm. Person. Graces are Mrs. E. Hornbeck, Lillian Person, Myrtle Gott, Mildred Stauffer, and Gladys Hare.
Mrs. Zelma Vanwyck and Bird Howay surprised their friends and relatives by being quietly married Saturday evening by Rev. J. D. Tanner at his home in Vestaburg. After the ceremony was performed the happy couple went to the depot and before friends knew of the marriage they were on their way to Saginaw where they remained until Monday. Mrs. Howay returned to Vestaburg while her husband went to his duties as foreman of the Pere Marquette bridge crew. The bride has lived in Vestaburg several years and the groom was born and raised here. Both are highly respected.

ELWELL
Mrs. Chas. Dunn is very ill at their home west of town.
Mrs. Chas. Medler was pleasantly surprised when a number of relatives and neighbors came to help her celebrate a birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards, after which refreshments were served. All report a good time.
Julius Marcey has the smallpox. Joe Lott of Puget Sound, Washington, who has been visiting here, left Friday for parts in Florida.
Mrs. Audley Charter was an Alma caller Monday.
Miss Leona Romine was an Alma caller Wednesday.

Mrs. Leon Rice gave a party last Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Louie Irish, of Alma, and Mrs. Chas. Medler of this place, the occasion being their birthdays.
Mr. Hood of Alma visited his daughter, Mrs. Calvin Dalrymple, a few days last week.
Steve Fletcher of Saginaw visited at the home of Levi Prithcard Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Marie Slingluff and Mrs. Arthur Freymuth of Meadville, Pa., attended the movies in Alma Wednesday evening.
Leon Irish of Alma was an Elwell caller Thursday.
A truck load of Elwell young people attended a party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Lily south of town.
Harold Hilsinger is very sick again at his home in St. Louis.
The Townsend school is closed for a few weeks.
The little infant of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferris passed away Wednesday night. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community.
